Event Report: Rangoli Competition at Shri Pandharinath ACS College

Overview

As part of its vibrant annual youth programs, Shri Pandharinath ACS College hosted a captivating Rangoli Competition on February 6, 2019. This colorful event was designed to celebrate the rich cultural heritage of India through the traditionpl art of Rangoli, encouraging students to display their creativity, artistic skills, and cultural understanding.

Objectives

- To celebrate and promote Indian traditional arts among the youth.
- To provide a platform for students to express their artistic talent and creativity.
- To foster a sense of cultural pride and unity among students.

Date and Venue

The competition took place on February 6, 2019, at the college's main hall, transforming the space into a vibrant canvas of colors and designs. The venue was chosen for its ample space and accessibility, allowing participants to work comfortably and spectators to enjoy the artistry on display.

Participants

Contestants: The competition saw enthusiastic participation from over 11 students.

Format

Participants were given a theme at the start of the competition, around which they had to design their Rangoli. They were allowed three hours to complete their artwork, using natural or biodegradable materials in keeping with the tradition of Rangoli making.

Conclusion

The Rangoli Competition at Shri Pandharinath ACS College was a resounding success, effectively showcasing the artistic talents of the students while paying homage to India's rich cultural traditions. It served not only as a competition but also as a celebration of creativity, unity, and cultural pride. The event was a highlight of the annual youth programs, leaving participants and spectators alike looking forward to next year's competition with great anticipation.
